WE publish this morning a copy of the act which has passed the Senate in reference to the Magistrates' districts and precincts in this county. This act comes to the Legislature under the indorsement of over eight hundred voters of Franklin county. It was unanimously recommended by the Democratic county convention which met here last December, and has been before the Senate from that time until a few days since, when, for the first time, we learned that it was opposed by anybody. We are informed now that some of the Opposition don't like it, and their objections really are grounded on the fact that, under the provisions of this bill, allowing two voting places in Franklin, it is expected the Irish and Dutch can vote without crowding and elbowing "Natives," and thereby give the latter a pretext for resorting to violence. We trust that this bill, which was presented some time since by our Senator, will pass the House without further delay, and that it may become a law without the crossing of a t or the dotting of an i in the way of amendment. It is fair and right in all its provisions.

The vote by which the Commercial Bank bill was rejected, and the Governor's veto sustained, on Thursday, was reconsidered in the Senate yesterday, and the bill passed, the Governor's objections to the contrary notwithstanding. The Speaker, Mr. Porter, ruled the motion to reconsider out of order, but an appeal from the Chair was taken and sustained by the Senate, with the result above stated. We are inclined to believe that the whole proceedings on the subject, yesterday, were unconstitutional, and the bank has no authority of law to increase its capital or extend its branches. It is now a question for the courts to determine.

We give an indorsement to the following handsome and well merited compliment to a leading member of the House of Representatives:

JNO. G. CARLISLE, OF KENTON.—Few men in Kentucky, or elsewhere, have succeeded so early in life in making their mark in public life, as the able and indefatigable Representative from the county of Kenton. Although quite young in years, he possesses the calm, matured judgment of the aged statesman, the tact and talent of the ablest debaters, and that power of intellect which enables him to grapple with the most difficult questions of public policy, and investigate them thoroughly. He is no time server—no office-seeker, he aspires to no political position, and serves his constituents only because he feels it his duty to do so, when they call upon him.

Although the present is his first term in the Legislature, he has succeeded in placing himself in the very front ranks of usefulness and influence. His course will be onward and upward, from this time forward; and the day is not distant when his talent, eloquence, and unending political integrity will call him to represent the gallant Tenth in Congress.

A few days ago, he replied to a speech from Mr. Buckner, of Fayette, in the House, and his effort is said to have been a most able and successful one. "It was so clear, conclusive, and unanswerable," says the correspondent of the Louisville Courier, "that Mr. Buckner did not even attempt to reply." This correspondent says Mr. Carlisle a further compliment when he says:

"Mr. Carlisle, I would remark by the way, although one of the youngest members of the House, has already taken a leading position. He is a gentleman of remarkably accurate judgment, of much promise, and I predict for him a successful and brilliant future. His efforts in the House are always to the point, and are listened to with marked attention."

All who speak of this young and popular Representative, concur in the opinion that he is a gentleman of bright promise, sterling merit, of corruptible integrity, and destined to become one of the brightest stars in the Kentucky constellation. "So mote it be!"—Ninth Legion.

[For the Yeoman.]

Our Opposition friends are very much troubled about our county precinct bill. They think it exceedingly hard that men living near the town should ride five or six miles in the country to vote. Have they forgotten that when they had the power a few years ago they would not allow a single voting place in the county, but compelled every voter to ride to the Court-house here in Franklin to cast his vote; and never, until forced by the new Constitution, would they make a precinct outside of the town. This bill is all right; most of these men are being placed back to the country precincts where they originally belonged.

The K. N.'s, when they had the power, brought them into the town precinct without the knowledge or consent of the Democrats, and we want them placed where they were when the precincts were first laid off. We have yet to find the first Democrat who has been thrown to the country by this bill, who complains. They would rather walk twenty miles to vote, than to have such scenes as we have had at our court-house since the advent of Know-Nothingism. It is the Opposition here in the town who object to this bill. They know that this county is Democratic, and if there is a fair and full vote polled, they will be beaten. They have kept from the polls by violence and threats of violence, from 50 to 75 voters in this precinct, and they can continue to do this, if you will just allow them to keep from 600 to 800 men in the court-house yard. The Democrats are willing and anxious to go to the country, and if the members of the Opposition do not choose to go and vote, we shall not object. But we want to be placed in a position to cast a full and fair vote. We have been run over here long enough. We want no advantage of our opponents, nor can we have any. They give themselves the casting vote at all the precincts, so there is no fear of illegal voting.

To LAWYERS.—Our facilities for job printing are equal to any office in the West, and we are prepared to do all kinds of job work at the shortest notice. Lawyers' briefs, legal cards, blanks, &c., printed in the neatest styles and at prices as low as they can be done anywhere.

Remarks of GEORGE M. THOMAS, of Lewis county, in the House of Representatives, February 10th, 1860, upon the bill submitting to the people the propriety and expediency of imposing an additional tax of three cents for school purposes:

Mr. SPEAKER.—The bill under consideration requires the sheriffs and other officers conducting the annual election to be held on the first Monday in August, 1860, to open a poll in the various precincts in their respective counties, and take the sense of the qualified voters of the Commonwealth upon the propriety and expediency of imposing an additional tax of three cents on each $100 worth of property in the State, for the purpose of increasing the common school fund of Kentucky. I should not have asked leave to bring in this bill if I had thought that the people of Kentucky were not in favor of an additional tax for school purposes. I am satisfied that the people of Kentucky are in favor of an additional tax for school purposes. I came to that conclusion from the votes that the people have heretofore given upon propositions of a similar character to the one under consideration.

In 1848 the people of the State voted upon the proposition of imposing a tax of two cents on each $100 worth of property in the State for the purpose of increasing the school fund. The proposition was carried by a very large majority. In the year 1855 the people voted upon a similar proposition, imposing an additional tax of three cents for common school purposes. That proposition was carried by over sixty thousand majority—there being over ninety thousand votes in favor of the additional tax, and only about thirty thousand against it. Upon an examination of the vote of the various counties, it will be seen that all the counties in the State, with the exception of some three or four, voted in favor of the three cent tax. Thus it will be seen that Jefferson county, which is the richest and most populous county in the State, gave the largest vote, and the largest majority in favor of the three cent tax of any county in the State. That county gave 3,462 votes in favor, and only 223 against the tax. In 1848 the county gave 1,653 in favor, and 370 against the two cent tax. The county of Fayette, which is so ably represented upon this floor, is the next richest county in the State. That county gave 1,577 votes in favor, and only 510 against the three cent tax—being over one thousand majority in favor of the tax—Campbell county gave 1,436 votes in favor, and only 63 against the three cent tax. Kenton county gave 3,066 in favor, and 317 against the tax. Madison county gave 1,238 votes in favor of the tax, and 656 against it. Fleming county gave 1,393 in favor, and only 340 against the tax. Greenup county gave 1,414 in favor, and only 35 against the tax. Lewis county gave 1,023 in favor, and 26 against the tax. Mason county gave 1,512 in favor, and 292 against the tax. Morgan county gave 1,340 in favor, and only 55 against it. In 1848 Morgan county gave 255 in favor, and 639 against the tax. Floyd county, in 1855, gave 911 in favor, and only 8 against the tax. In 1848 Floyd gave 410 for, and 214 against the tax—Lawrence county gave 1,020 for, and only 36 against the three cent tax. Scott county gave 1,245 in favor, and 249 against the tax. Palski gave 1,558 in favor, and 392 against the tax. Perry 311 in favor, and 8 against the tax. Knox 905 in favor, 34 against. Johnson 643 for, and 28 against. Franklin 1,247 for, and 350 against. Bourbon 771 for, 575 against. Wayne 1,037 for, and 233 against. I refer to the vote to show that those who are for taxation for school purposes are not confined, as some suppose, to a particular locality in the State. It also appears that the richest, as well as the poorest counties in the State, are in favor of taxation for common school purposes.

For the purpose of public instruction, I believe that every man ought to be subject to taxation in proportion to his property, and we ought not to look at the question whether he have or have not children to be educated by the school for which he pays. I regard it as a wise and liberal system of policy, by which life and property and the peace of society are secured. It is the pride and boast of our noble system of government, that each citizen, at the ballot-box, possesses equal rights of sovereignty with every other one. Therefore how important it is that the great mass of the people of our State be educated so that each may be able to read and understand for himself the history and constitution of his country, and to decide for himself what are the true principles and policy of his own government.

I am satisfied that the present school law is insufficient. The income from all sources ought to be sufficient to teach a six months' school in every district in the State. The additional tax proposed in this bill will increase the fund sufficient to teach a six months' school in a large majority of the districts.

The estimated income of the school fund for the year 1859, from all sources, was $345,796.44, being made up as follows: The amount drawn from the present five cent school tax brings $225,802.94; the amount drawn from the bonds brings $70,013.59; the amount drawn from tax on shares of stock of the Farmers' Bank, Bank of the State, and Bank of Ashland, brings about $11,700; and on the 435 shares of the capital stock of the Bank of Kentucky, $12,000; which amount is to be expended for schools taught in the year 1859. The amount of money expended in the year 1848 for school purposes in the State was only $18,000. The annual increase in the amount of the money expended exhibits an enviable prospect for the school fund, and shows that our school system is rapidly advancing.

It must be admitted that the system of education in our State is in a highly flourishing condition. Thus it will appear that in 1848 there were returned to the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction in all 31,501 children within school ages actually attending school; while in 1858 there were reported the unprecedented number of 267,712, making an increase in ten years 236,211!

Some gentlemen object to submitting the proposition to the people; they say that the present tax is sufficient; they say, also, that the people are opposed to more taxation for school purposes, and that the rich counties have to pay for the education of the children of the people of the mountains.

In answer to the first objection, I would state that it is evident to every person that the present school tax is insufficient, because the income from the school fund will not teach a three months' school. The funds ought to be large enough to teach a six months' school in every district in the State. All I have to say in answer to the second objection is, that if the people are opposed to the proposition, they will vote it down. As to the third objection, it is true that the rich counties in the State pay into the Treasury more school money than they draw out; and that the mountain counties get the benefit of the money they pay. I find, upon examining the Auditor's report for 1858, that the number of pupils in the State without property is 14,542, having 35,211 children. Now I would ask, is it to the interest of the people of this State that these 35,211 children should be brought up in ignorance and vice? The number of parents in the State worth less than $100 is 7,091, having 19,591 children. The knowledge of a people is always in proportion to their liberty, and it is equally true in proportion to their knowledge, and the more knowledge a people have, the more powerful and happy will they become.

I hope to live to see the day when every poor man in this glorious old commonwealth can call all property his own so far as he has occasion for it to furnish for himself and his children the elements of knowledge and blessings of religious instruction. He ought to be entitled to this celestial and this earthly light by the laws of the country. It ought to be every poor man's consolation in death that his country stands pledged to protect his children from barbarity, ignorance, and vice.

It is the first duty of a great State, to see that the children of her people are educated. It has been true, from the beginning of our history, that the government compels every man to send his children to school from the age of six to fourteen years. Every individual in this commonwealth reads and thinks. From the peasant to the King you find every individual, with few exceptions, can read and write. Can it be said that every individual in Kentucky, from the peasant to the Governor, can read and write? It cannot be said, but I hope the time will soon arrive when every individual in Kentucky can read and write. It is impossible to estimate the beneficial consequences that would result to the country from the establishment of a good and efficient system of education. The only real foundation of permanent and real improvement is in the organization of a good system of education.

The present five cent tax will produce this year about $250,000, and that amount will annually increase, as the taxable property of the State increases. If the proposition under consideration is carried by the people, the three cent tax proposed will produce about $150,000 annually—making $400,000 raised by taxation, to which must be added the $90,713.59 arising annually from interest on State bonds, &c., making in all about $490,713.59 to be distributed annually in the State for the education of the children of the people.

The amendment offered by the gentleman from Fayette (Mr. Buckner), proposing to revise the law establishing the Normal School at Lexington, I was opposed to the original law, believed it unconstitutional; am still of that opinion. If the amendment is adopted, the people will reject the proposition by thousands of majority. I am satisfied the people will vote in favor of the proposition by a large majority, if it is not closed by unpopular and unnecessary amendments.

I am opposed to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Union (Mr. McElroy). The amendment, if adopted, cannot be carried out. How can the sheriff retain the money when he does not know how much to retain? He is required to pay the money into the treasury in December. The Superintendent of Public Instruction does not make his report until the 15th of February. The County Commissioners do not make their report to the Superintendent until 15th of January. How can the Sheriff retain the money in December when the amount is not ascertained till in February. The amendment requires the Superintendent to make his report the 15th of December of each year. How can he make his report in December when he does not receive the County Commissioners' report until the 15th of February afterwards. The amendment, if adopted, cannot be carried out. It disarranges all the school laws. Who is it that are introducing these amendments to the bill? Is it the friends or the enemies of the measure? It is the enemies of the bill who wish to attach provisions to the bill that would render it odious before the people, and thereby secure its defeat. I am opposed to all amendments, and I hope the friends of the measure will vote them all down. I shall vote for the bill here, and if submitted to the people, I shall vote in favor of the proposition at the ballot-box.

The gentleman from Bracken (Mr. Cleveland), proposes to amend the bill by adding "that such additional tax shall not be levied, unless a majority of all the qualified voters of the Commonwealth, as shown by the Auditor's report for the year 1857, shall have voted in favor thereof at said election." If 75,000 persons vote in favor of the proposition; and 25,000 against it, then, according to the above provision, the tax shall not be levied, although the proposition has carried by 50,000 majority. The elections in 1860 are not general, being for sheriffs, &c., and therefore a full vote cannot be given. I proposed the original bill to take the vote in 1861, when a general vote would be cast. However, I believe the proposition will carry at any election.

AN ACT to divide the Magistrates' districts in Franklin county, and to regulate election precincts and places of voting therein:

§ 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the boundary of magistrates' district No. 1, in the county of Franklin, is established as follows, to wit: Beginning at the city limits for Frankfort, on the Frankfort and Versailles turnpike road; thence with said turnpike road to the toll bridge; thence in the intersection of the Georgetown and the Versailles turnpike roads; thence with said lane till it passes the farms of John Carter and Thos. Jett; thence to the Versailles turnpike road, to the point where it strikes the line between the counties of Franklin and Woodford, excluding the farms of said Carter and Jett, and all the land between said turnpike road and the line between the counties of Franklin and Woodford county line to the city limits; thence down said river to the city limits; thence running around with the limits of the city of Frankfort; so far as to include said city in this district, to the beginning.

§ 2. Magistrates' district No. 1 is hereby divided into two election precincts, as follows: All that part of said district north of Montgomery street, and all that part of said district south of Montgomery street, shall constitute one precinct; and that part of said district south of said street and road shall constitute another precinct; but said two precincts shall constitute but one magistrate's district. The voting place in the precinct north of said street and road, shall be at the State's Warehouse, near the Penitentiary; and in the precinct south of said street and road, the voting place shall be at the court-house.

§ 3. That the boundary of district No. 2, is hereby changed as follows, viz: Beginning on the Frankfort and Versailles turnpike road, at the city limits of Frankfort, thence with the line of district No. 1 to where it strikes the Woodford county line; thence with the Woodford line to the city limits of Woodford; thence with the Scott line to the city limits of Scott; thence with the line of district No. 1 to the city limits of Woodford; thence with a straight line to A. G. Carter's, including said Stout, Baker, and Carter; thence with a straight line to the residence of the late Dr. Wm. Gayle, excluding it; thence to Mrs. Numm's, including her residence; thence with the Sulphur Lick road until it passes James Bratton's residence; thence to the head of Clarke's Branch, excluding the farm of John Elkhorn; thence down said branch to Henry Elkhorn; thence to Elkhorn to H. B. Innis's residence, including it; thence to Henry Gilmer's, including his farm; thence to William Lillis's, on the Frankfort and Owensboro turnpike, including him; thence with said pike to the city limits of Frankfort; and thence with the city limits to the beginning. The voting place in said district shall be at the Forks of Elkhorn.

§ 4. That the boundary of district No. 3, is hereby changed so as to embrace all that part of Franklin county north of the Kentucky River not embraced within the limits of precincts Nos. 1 and 2; and that the voting place of said district No. 3 shall be at Peak's Mills.

§ 5. That the boundary of district No. 4 is established as follows, viz: Beginning at the city limits of Frankfort on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad; thence with said Railroad to where the New Castle dirt road crosses it above Benson Depot; thence with said New Castle road to Harrison Allison's, including him; thence with the Christianburg road to the Shelby county line; thence with the Shelby line to the Anderson county line; thence with the Anderson line to the Kentucky River; thence down said river to the line of district No. 1; thence with said line to the beginning; and that the voting place of said district No. 4 shall be at Bridgeport.

§ 6. That the boundary of district No. 5 is hereby changed so as to embrace all that part of Franklin county south of the Kentucky river not embraced within the divisions of said act, within the limits of districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4; and that the voting place of said district shall be at, or near, where it now is.

§ 7. That the magistrate's districts, election precincts, and places of voting established by this act shall not be changed by the County Court except at the Court of Claims, and it shall require a majority of all the Justices of the Peace in commission in the county to concur with the Pre-judging Judge of the County Court before any change shall be made.

§ 8. That this act shall take effect from and after its passage, and that all acts or parts of acts in conflict with it are hereby repealed.

DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR STEVENS.—The Easton, (Md.) Gazette, of Saturday last, announces the death of Samuel Stevens, Ex-Governor of Maryland. He was a native of Talbot county, where he died on the 7th instant, in the 82d year of his age. A man of the strictest integrity, with kind and generous impulses, and remarkable for his energy and industry, he was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

ACTIVE EXERCISE BY LADIES.—The Philadelphia Bulletin ridicules the idea among feminine skating, and says, "they order things better abroad. Ladies of established position, whose genuine modesty no one would think of questioning, and who belong to families which have been the best in the country for hundreds of years, engaged in robust exercises for which many of our so-called ladies would shrink from as vulgar. They dive spirited horses along the beautiful lanes and by the blossoming hedge-rows of merry England. They ride on horseback with brilliant cavalades to visit all the spots sacred to historic fame and old romance. They think nothing, even a Lady Arabella or an Honorable Geraldine, of walking five miles in the country, suitably dressed and booted for the purpose. They are skilled in archery. Some of them even ride after the hounds, and harden their aristocratic hands by rowing pleasure boats in a style that would expatiate the hearts of our whole Schuylkill fleet."

The last accounts from Utah say that things were growing worse and worse. The Mormons were getting to be little better than a horde of thieves. The Gentiles could keep nothing moveable without standing guard over it. Young's doctrine on the subject was thus defined in a late discourse: "I have had no revelation in regard to the stealing that is going on in this Territory. When the Lord wants it stopped, He will stop it! I believe that a man can steal and be justified in the act."

Dr. Bull has certainly achieved an enviable success, producing from his laboratory a medicine that is at once pleasant to the taste and at the same time a prompt and sure remedy for worms. His Vegetable Worm Destroyer combines these properties in perfection.

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

Its wonderful effects and consequent popularity—perhaps no article in the history of Materia Medica ever acquired the same patronage, was subjected to the same number of severe and different tests, and met with as few failures as the Mustang Liniment. It has been tried by the Panacea for all external Wounds, Cuts, Swellings, Sprains, Bruises, or Eruptions on Man or Beast. It is so far a medicine of surprising value, that Physicians are compelled to prescribe it, and from some remarkable cures of Chronic and Distorted Rheumatic cases it has naturally attracted much attention from the first scientific minds of the age. No family can afford to be without a bottle of the Mustang Liniment in the house. Beware of imitations.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULES.

Mr. RHEA moved a suspension of the rules in order to allow the committee on Banks to report a bill. Adopted.

Mr. MARSHALL—Banks—An act to amend the charter of the Southern Bank of Kentucky. Pending which, the hour arrived for taking up a SPECIAL ORDER.

The motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill to amend the charter of the Commercial Bank of Kentucky was rejected.

The SPEAKER announced that his decision yesterday, in ruling that Mr. Walker could not move to reconsider the vote, he having voted with the majority, although that majority had defeated the bill, was not correct. He now reversed that decision.

Mr. WALKER moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was defeated.

Mr. FISK raised a point of order, to-wit: The constitution says that the vote yesterday was a reconsideration, and there is no authority allowing a reconsideration to be reconsidered. He supported his point at some length.

The point of order, after being elaborately discussed by Messrs. FISK, BRUNER, CISELL, WALTON, GRUNDY, GLENN, WALKER, MARSHALL, WHITAKER, and DEHAVEN, was decided by the Speaker as correct, and consequently, that the motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was rejected and the veto sustained, was out of order.
